

Grace El Azar

Biography

Grace El Azar is the communication and HSE manager at Holcim Lebanon. She joined Holcim as the Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) coordinator to support the company in implementing and expanding its CSR and sustainability commitments. She currently has a multifaceted role in health, safety and environment while she continues her role in communications and CSR.

Grace has always been passionate about sustainability and has worked at Holcim on various aspects of sustainable development. Her diverse role focuses on identifying and managing sustainability issues on social, environmental, and human rights in collaboration with stakeholders, all while ensuring the workforce's health and safety.

Grace graduated from the American University of Beirut (AUB) with a Bachelor's degree in Environmental Health and a Master's degree in Environmental Sciences