

Sabeeka Alshamlan

Biography

Sabeeka is a gender researcher, a certified coach (CMI Level 5) and a trainer with over 12 years of experience in social development and community empowerment. With a passion towards building capacities of youth and women in the region, she has founded Warsha. Sabeeka has worked with different regional and international NGOs such as the United Nations Development Program (UNDP) on sustainable growth and gender projects, the international youth leadership organization AIESEC and Ruwwad Al Tanmeya in Amman designing and implementing empowerment programs for women and youth. Sabeeka is an Alumni of the Manama Hub of the Global Shapers Community and sits on the board of directors for AIESEC in Bahrain. She is a Certified Women Crisis Advocate at Shamsaha, a certified facilitator for Hive Women Leadership Program, a Fellow of Ban Ki-Moon Centre for Global Citizens and Ghaya Fellowship Program for Social Entrepreneurs. Sabeeka holds a Master of Research in Gender Studies from the University of Portsmouth.