AUB University for Seniors kicks off fall term; registration starts on Sept. 16

Beirut, Lebanon- 10/09/2013 - The American University of Beirut University of Seniors announced that its fall term will start on September 30, 2013, and registration for the term will take place next week from September 16 to September 20, 2013. The fee for one term, which runs through November 29, 2013, is $150 for the whole term, giving participants access to all courses and activities during the term.

Themes covered this term include politics, history, healthy aging, arts, environment, new technologies, educational travel program to India and cooking classes.

A detailed program of the fall term can be found on the University for Seniors website www.aub.edu.lb/seniors and facebook page : <http://www.facebook.com/aub.universityforseniors>

For more information, please contact University for Seniors at 01-350000 extension: (1)2563

The University for Seniors is a life-long learning initiative at AUB, the first of its kind in Lebanon and the Middle East, that gives older adults (who are 50 and above) the opportunity to share their wisdom and passion, to learn things they have always wanted to learn in a friendly academic environment and to interact socially with other seniors, and AUB faculty and students.

The program allows seniors to remain intellectually challenged and socially engaged, actively contributing to their community.
